WOULD RETAIN COL. A. S. FROST

Department Urged to Rescind Action in Retiring Commandant.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on officials of the war department in an effort to retain Lieut.-Col. A. S. Frost, professor of military science and tactics at the Central high school and commandant of the local unit, Reserve Officers Training corps, junior division.

Acting both on his own initiative and responding to the requests of friends of the popular officer, Prof. Wharton S. Jones, superintendent of city schools, has telegraphed Senator K. D. McKellar to use the strongest arguments possible to have the war department rescind the order retiring Col. Frost. The only obstacle in the way, it is believed, will be the probable position of the war department in acting on the retired list of a general one and to rescind it may be taken by the department to set a precedent and cause every one affected the order to enter a similar request.

Senator McKellar, however, in a telegram to Prof. Jones Friday stated that he would do all in his power to have Col. Frost placed again on the active list.

Col. Frost has greatly ingratiated himself in the hearts of Memphians during his comparatively brief assignment to the local post he occupies. He offered himself for active duty overseas during the world war but his wish was not granted on account of age. Col. Frost is in perfect health except a slight affection of the heart which physicians said at the time the officer sought service, might increase, should he be placed under conditions where he would likely be subjected to intense excitement.

In the effort to have Col. Frost reinstated attention of the war department is called to the fact that the conditions under which he has been working would not be such as to create any cause of danger to the efficiency of the services rendered.

In the event that the order stands retiring Col. Frost, Prof. Jones will insist that a West Point man be appointed to occupy the position.

Government May Ultimately Buy Park Field Site

The United States government will ultimately purchase Park field, the location camp at Washington, in the opinion of Herbert Gannaway, attorney representing the law committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Gannaway returned from Washington Thursday afternoon, where he went to close the deal with Secretary of War Baker for the purchase of the field.

In the last minute of the negotiations Secretary Baker decided not to purchase the field because he thought it would not be ethical in view of the army appropriation bill awaiting the president's signature in which Congress forbids the expenditure of additional money by the war department on the purchase of real estate. Secretary Baker held that while the bill had not actually become a law, the will of Congress was recorded in it and it would not be right for him to avail himself of a chance to circumvent it.

Park field was not the only field on which purchase was held up because of Secretary Baker's scruples. Mr. Gannaway said. It was only one of many.

It is Secretary Baker's intention to arrange for the introduction of a special bill as soon as Congress has gotten through the rush of business incident to the president's return, in which special appropriations for the purchase of Park field and other aviation fields will be asked.

"Mr. Baker," said Mr. Gannaway, "says the fields must be acquired if the army is to maintain its aviation service. Their purchase cannot be permanently abandoned unless the government intends to drop the development of military aviation."

The delay is not expected to interfere with the purchase of the land from this end, as the options held by the Chamber of Commerce are for an indefinite period and can be exercised within any reasonable length of time.

UNITED STATES CHIEF IN BRAZIL'S IMPORTS

NEW YORK, July 11. (Sp.)—The United States during the last year, according to the National Bank of Commerce, has become the chief factor in Brazil's import trade. In 1918, when Brazil's total imports aggregated $347,000,000, the United States supplied commodities valued at $99,000,000.

British shipments to Brazil amounted to $50,000,000; Argentina, $47,000,000 and French, $12,000,000.

In 1913 the United Kingdom led in exports to Brazil, supply her with goods valued at $80,000,000 out of total imports of $228,000,000. Germany sent goods amounting to $57,000,000; the United States, $51,000,000; France, $22,000,000, and Argentina, $21,000,000.

FURTHER LITIGATION SEEN IN PHONE CASE

Whether or not the present contract between the city of Memphis and the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company, fixing the rates to be charged in Memphis is now void due to the fact that the company now has more than 20,000 phones, is a matter that may bring further litigation as soon as the telephone properties are returned to the owners by the federal government.

Attorneys for the telephone company claim that more than 20,000 stations are now installed, but the city attorney differs. He declares that the company is counting extensions when only direct lines should be enumerated.

However, it is not believed any agreement will be made between the city and telephone company as to rates when the government turns back the properties. The city will contend that the old contract and the old rate and the company will contend that the old contract is dead on account of the fact that 20,000 stations are now installed.

The company also will say that the rate-making from now on shall be fixed by the state utility commission and that body alone can make the rates.

NOON CLOSING OF DEPOTS IS OPPOSED

While Memphis shippers have received no official order from the railroads pertaining to the closing of the freight depots during the noon hour, it is understood that the order is to go into effect July 15.

Many of the shippers are making no protest against the new rule but others are said to contemplate a vigorous protest. It is admitted that the railroad administration will save some money for overtime by the order, but it is claimed that it will prove very costly to some of the large shippers who operate a number of big trucks which they keep moving all day long. To put these big trucks out of service for an hour every day will cost the shippers dollars where the railroad administration will only save cents, it is claimed.

HUNLAND GLOOMY.

TREVEES, July 11.—Mail from Hamburg passing through the American censorship indicates a gloomy condition of affairs there socially and economically. According to letters from individuals writing to relatives or friends in the American occupied area, since all the navigation companies had to surrender their ships to the entente there have been 10,000 to 20,000 men walking the streets in search of work.

To Overcome Redness, Tan, Freckles, Blistches

If your skin is unduly reddened, tanned or freckled, just dab a little pure peroxide on the face and allow it to remain over night. When you wash off the wax in the morning, fine, flaky, almost invisible particles of cuticle come with it. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually and gently there's not the slightest hurt or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles are affected. The underlying skin which forms the new complexion is so clear, fresh and youthful-looking you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing known to actually discard an aged, faded, muddy or blotchy complexion. One ounce of peroxide was procurable at any drug store, is sufficient in most cases.
